

Terms and Conditions

Thank you for choosing to train at Bella Marie Training Academy; we pride ourselves in providing you with a first-class training experience.

Please read the following terms and conditions before booking your training course.

1. All courses are non-refundable and non-transferrable.
2. Full course payment must be received in advance of your course. This payment is non-refundable and non-transferable.
3. Models for case studies and patch testing are your responsibility.
4. Following course completion, insurance is the responsibility of the student; the Academy can provide you with information where to access insurance. Please check your insurance allows you to carry out the treatments before purchasing a course.
5. It will be your responsibility to have relevant insurance in place when carrying out a case study. If you do not already have beauty insurance, you can obtain student insurance from most insurance companies for a small fee.
6. Your course will require you to carry out a number of case studies, make sure you have the relevant products to be able to do this, before purchasing your course.
7. Failure to complete your course in the timescale given will not allow for a refund.
8. Have fun and take photos!
